Webinar: Introduction to the Master Psychology

The IPU Berlin has begun its Summer semester. These days, our digital rooms are filling up with students again. Aside from that, this semester has many interesting digital events to offer. We are happy to share two of those with you here.

But first, a look at the coming Winter 2021/2022 semester. At that point, IPU Berlin's psychotherapy training institute, WIPU, will open for the first time. By having an in-house institute, studying and psychotherapy training can be uniquely interlocked. As of 15 May, graduates of masters of psychology programs can apply for the child/adolescent and adult psychoanalysis or psychodynamic psychotherapy training programs. In addition, the WIPU board invites all prospective training candidates to an Info Session Webinar on 11 May.

Anyone interested in starting a master's program in Berlin is invited to join our Info Session Webinar about the English-language Master of Psychology program.

Library Talk with Dr. Leon Brenner and Dr. Eve Watson

The IPU Berlin would like to thank Dr. Ida di Pietro Leupold-Löwenthal for her generous support. She carries on the memory of her late husband, Viennese psychoanalyst Dr. Harald Leupold-Löwenthal, and his legacy, by supporting the IPU Berlin with funds from the newly-established Harald Leupold-Löwenthal Endowment Fund. You can read more on our website.

You can find current information on the IPU Berlin on Facebook and Instagram.

News from IPU's International Office

The International Office (IO) is currently offering scholarships within the framework of the DAAD-funded PROMOS and the EU-funded ERASMUS programs for internships in and outside of Europe during the second half of 2021. Within the same programs, funding for language courses abroad and research stays abroad to work on a master thesis or term paper is also available. The application deadline is 30 April 2021. Please send your application via email. Further information on our website.

As part of the DAAD-funded scholarship program STIBET I, the IO is currently offering up to three partial grants à 250€ per month (20 September till 20 December 2021) for socially engaged international students and doctoral candidates. For more information on the application procedure and eligibility criteria, please see the call for applications. Moreover, up to two graduation scholarships à 500€ for international students and doctoral candidates about to complete their studies are being offered. For more information on the application procedure and eligibility criteria, please see the call for applications. The application deadline for both STIBET I scholarships is 30 April 2021.
