

International Psychoanalysis at the International Psychoanalytic University

Wednesday 2.7.2014

20:15 Gaby Shefler, Jerusalem: The Confusion Caused By Shifts Between Different Ethical Languages Within Psychoanalysis.

Thursday 10.7.2014

19:15 Vittorio Gallese, Parma: Embodied Simulation: Ideas For A Dialogue Between Cognitive Neuroscience And Psychoanalysis.

Thursday 18.9.2014

18:15–19:45 Viviane Chetrit-Vatine, Jerusalem: The Analyst's Ethical Awakening.

20:15–21:45 Marilia Aisenstein, Paris/Athen: From Drive To Representation And Affect.

Friday 19.9.2014

09:15–10:45 David Bell, London: All That Is Solid Melts Into Air: Civilisation And Its Discontents, A Contemporary Perspective.

11:15–12:45 Marie-Thérèse Khair Badawi, Beirut: Being, Thinking, Creating: When War Attacks The Setting And The Transference Counter-Attacks.

All lectures are being held in the Large Lecture Hall at the IPU, Stromstraße 2, 10555 Berlin, on the third floor. Students and members of the IPU are admitted free-of-charge. For external students and candidates, as well as members of the IPU's Sponsors and Fundraisers Association the admission fee is €5. All other guests are charged €10.

International Psychoanalytic University Berlin

Stromstraße 2, Hörsaal, 3. Etage

10555 Berlin

www.ipu-berlin.de

